To: Her Majesty's Government Legal Office of the United Kingdom
One Kemble Street, London WC2B 4TS
CC: International Court of Justice
Peace Palace, Carnegieplein 2, 2517 KJ The Hague, The Netherlands
Subject: Cease and Desist Order, Reparations under the articles of UNDRIP

Greetings,

My name is Llywelyn, Brenin Cymru (Llywelyn, King of Wales). I am the legal heir to the native Kings and Princes of Wales in accordance with the native Welsh law and international laws regarding the rights of dethroned monarchies. My fons honorum, royal titles and the rights that are coupled with them were recognized in nations party to the Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards in May of 2016. My tribunal award was recognized and enforced in the United States of America's Superior Court of California (Case# 37-2016-00044244-CU-PT-NC) in February of 2017. My right to this position and hereditaments precludes all others on the ancient international legal principle of laches, with the creation of the "Welsh Acts of Restoration" (April, 2016) after I put forth my claim jus sanguinis, and by the fact that I have multiple existing international litigations granting final and binding judgments.

The reason for my letter today is:

- 1) To give you legal notice to immediately cease and desist suspending the actions of the native Welsh government.
- 2) To initiate communications and political remedies to begin the process of transferring political powers over to the historical, native, and lawful government of Wales in the most transparent methods possible, as to not disturb the well-being of her citizens any further.
- 3) To give you legal notice to immediately cease and desist exporting resources from Wales without properly agreeing upon trade negotiations and paying for said resources.
- 4) To notify you of my intent to seek reparations for the injustices and atrocities the nation of Wales is currently enduring and has suffered over the many years of British occupation, and the immoral treatment that I have personally witnessed.
- 5) To quiet the claim of any other parties in the matter.

It is unjust and morally unethical to continue to subjugate the nation of Wales in the medieval practice that has been carried over into modern times, or to allow her noble people to sleep rough in the streets while you remove her resources at their expense.

Your previous monarch, His Majesty King George VI most wisely said it best himself in his war outbreak speech in 1939 when referring to Nazi Germany's invasions, "It is a principle which permits a state, in the selfish pursuit of power, to disregard its treaties and its solemn pledges, which sanctions the use of force or threat of force against the sovereignty and independence of other states. Such a principle, stripped of all disguise, is surely the mere primitive doctrine that might is right". This philosophy has been recognized in tribunals and courts internationally.

The last Prince of Wales under native title (Owain Glyn Dŵr) never surrendered nor accepted the royal pardons he was offered, and the Welsh people have continued to display political protests since the occupation and illegal annexation of Wales. The flying of Y Ddraig Goch (The Red Dragon) is one such political protest. Y Ddraig Goch is linked to the Welsh identity and to the Welsh peoples historically documented presence on the British Isles during the withdrawal of the Roman forces. In 1959 the British monarchy attempted to change the flag of Wales and created their own variant, to which the Welsh proudly answered by continuing to display their true colors. Given the facts that there was never debellatio and that political protest has continued for more than 600 years; Wales is still de jure sovereign and independent today.

Since the Welsh have been proven to be the indigenous peoples of the British Isles or "Celtic Britons" in forensic DNA studies carried out by the Oxford University, they are rightfully entitled to reparations under the articles of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (UNDRIP).

It is my great hope in writing you this letter that you will reconsider the current conditions and remedy these "primitive" injustices, thus changing your course to an enlightened one in these modern times. It is not my goal in seeking that which is lawful and just for Wales to derail your Government, Monarchy, or to have their peoples be made to suffer. I simply seek to correct the wrongs of the past that have been carried over in practice. I am willing to negotiate terms for restitution and reparations and also willing to table any disagreements for the International Court of Justice to hear.

I respectfully request as one monarch to another's government your further consideration and anticipate positive dialogue with you in these matters of great importance.

Thank you for your time and consideration in these matters,
Cymru am Byth,

Llywelyn, King of Wales
Rex Britannorum
